Kids at a Convention? Saturday is Family Day at Bioneers!

Everyday is family friendly at the conference, but Saturday, October 20th will be special. The day starts with renowned experiential educator and director of Ecology Education at Chatfield School, Peter McCreedy who will keynote in Milliken Auditorium. He was the 2005 recipient of an "Outdoor Classroom" grant awarded by the MI Department of Education.

We'll also feature:

- ❑ Family friendly workshops
- ❑ Infant and toddler clothing swap
- ❑ Musical jam session with members of the Earthwork Music Collective
- ❑ Quiet space for nursing and naps
- ❑ Colorful, rambunctious areas and art projects
- ❑ Televised access to the keynote speakers throughout NMC's campus
- ❑ Easy access to the beautiful campus grounds at our NMC location
- ❑ Free admission to those under 12

"We won't participate in an event that doesn't welcome our kids as well," says Amy Daniels-Moehle, 2007 NMEAC Volunteer Environmentalist of the Year and an organizer for this year's kid-space.

To register, or for more information about this year's speakers, workshops, and events see our website: www.glbconference.org or call 800.220.1415.

The Hosts

The Neahtawanta Center is a place of peace and rejuvenation. The Center's primary focus is education, communication, community building, and organizing.

SEEDS works on projects that lesson our ecological footprint through Engineering & Design, Capacity Building & Networking, and Arts & Education.
